About TIPLA:

The Toledo Intellectual Property Law Association (TIPLA) is a professional organization for intellectual property attorneys, paralegals, academics, supporting businesses and interested parties in the Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan communities. The association, previously known as the Toledo Patent Law Association, has been operating in the Toledo area for over sixty years.

TIPLA provides a forum in which viewpoints and opinions may be exchanged with persons and organizations having related interests in the fields of patents, trademarks, copyrights, or trade secrets.

TIPLA members endeavor to maintain a high standard of professional ethics in the practice and the profession of intellectual property law.

TIPLA members enjoy a number of benefits, including: association-sponsored CLE events; quarterly luncheons; and numerous social activities.

TIPLA welcomes new members to the association. Any persons engaged in pursuits or interests involving intellectual property are eligible to be members of TIPLA. Persons interested in learning more about TIPLA, or in becoming new members, are encouraged to contact the association for more information.
